

The Department of Health is the state agency which administers the MCH Block Grant in the state of Washington. The Office of Maternal and Child Health is located in the Division of Community and Family Health under the direction of the Assistant Secretary, Patty Hayes. OMCH is divided into the following sections: Maternal Infant Health, Child and Adolescent Health, Children with Special Health Care Needs, Genetics Services, Immunizations/CHILD Profile, and Assessment. These sections are focused primarily on infrastructure-building, with the majority of direct health care, enabling, and population-based Title V services contracted and provided through 35 local health jurisdictions and other agencies throughout the state.
